

Tayo Solagbade – Speaker Rating/Feedback

WHAT ATTENDEES OF MY LEARNING EVENTS HAVE SAID

A. I spoke at the Trust Council and later various branches of Corona Schools in mid - 2002. The talk (based on my experiences over 7 years as a Manger in Guinness Nigeria Plc, was titled “Ten Ways You Can Use Self-Development To Become A High-Flyer At Work - Or Create The Future You Want.”

“Your (talk) encourages people not to depend on sycophancy to achieve their aims. People are also encouraged to leave the level of mediocrity. One needs to look inwards and make use of one’s potentials to reach the greatest heights. I hope this is not the last session we will be having with you”

- Ezemba C.I (Miss)

“The (talk) is very useful for those who want to up-grade themselves..The older generation who think they have come to the end of their career would find it very very useful to rejuvenate their attitude, interest and empower themselves to greater goals. Education has no end”

- E. C. Sarsal

“It was an interesting seminar and the speaker spoke well, with a lot of experiences that were so educative” - Emmanuel(Mrs.)- Teacher, Corona Primary School, Victoria Island, Lagos.

“I was impressed with the speaker, his integrity, method of delivery and what he had to say. This should not stop here. I personally need access to those books and if pointed in that direction will be happy. Also, I will be happy if (I can be shown) ways to apply oneself to the concept of Self-Development as regards my job as a teacher, that will help me to be a better time manager” -
Teacher, Corona Primary School, Ikoyi, Lagos.

B. I was invited to lead the 108th session of the Center for Management Development’s Staff Seminar in September 2002. I delivered a one hour presentation based on my 45 page management research paper titled “Self-Development As A Tool For Achieving Career Advancement”

“Good insight for the much needed human revolution to drive creativity in this nation” - Oma Williams O.W. - Director, Center For Management Development, Lagos.

“A very worthwhile exercise. The package can however be improved by making it organization specific” - C. I. Okeke - AD/Research & Consulting, Center For Management Development, Lagos.

“(This) is a celebration of Change Management..quite an appropriate and timely presentation at CMD to Stimulate Change - Binuyo, Francis A. - MDO1, Center For Management Development, Lagos

“The Speaker, Mr. Solagbade is an authority in his field. The Speaker is an achiever who is able to carry his audience along with him in his message/speech” - Confidential Secretary, Center For Management Development, Lagos.

“The Speaker is quite an inspiration to the young generation...I hope his doors are quite open to the public to come in, especially to assist the poor” - Nwaokokoh Eddy Azuka - Confidential Secretary, Center For Management Development, Lagos.

“Well this is my first seminar, and I think I have gained a lot. I am a philosopher by profession but I am on NAPEP attachment to the Centre(CMD) for a while, but generally speaking I think you are good and can go even above the sky. I wish I can get in touch with you for more lectures (on) Self-Development as regards Career Development or probably Personal Development” - Sanwo Pamela A - Unemployed Graduate.

C. I was invited - By Impact Consulting Limited - as Guest Speaker to deliver a one hour talk on Achieving Continuous Interpersonal Effectiveness to Management Trainees undergoing induction at Tantalizers headquarters in July 2004.

“The practical real life experiences make the (talk) more realistic and obtainable. The seminar fuels my heart to develop myself the more” - Kemi

“This is an academy that will go a long way in helping to develop the youths of this country. Keep up the good work.” - Alake Oluwayemisi

“The presenter was superb. He dealt with the topic extensively, citing experiences that are personal to him” - No name

“The (speaker has) done so well, and he has made me feel that the sky is not my limit, but the start if I can apply all the personal effectiveness principles appropriately.” - Onifade Olajide

“The (talk) was a new dimension to the art of personal effectiveness, was less of theory but of tested and proven principles. Keep it up.” - Oluwakemi
